VOTER ID

The purpose of the voter ID requirements is to maintain the integrity of local election processes. Your name and address must appear in some form on your voter identification documents.

Photo ID is your BEST option

Acceptable photo identification is ID that is government issued, valid and has your photo, name and address.

Example include:

- A valid Saskatchewan Driver's Licence.
- A valid Saskatchewan ID card issued by SGI or any motor licence issuer.
- Any other valid government issued photo ID issued by a Canadian government whether federal, provincial or municipal, or an agency of that government, so long as it includes your name and address.

Non-Photo ID options

If you don't have and cannot obtain photo ID, you can present two other pieces of information, as long as both contain your name and at least one contains your address.

Examples include:

- Valid ID cards or certificates issued by the Canadian or Saskatchewan government, a Saskatchewan municipality or school division, a Saskatchewan Indian band, the Metis Nation of Saskatchewan or an agency of one of these entities.
- Personal correspondence, benefit/contribution statements and tax/assessment notices issued by any of the above entities.
- Bank/credit union cards, credit cards and statements.
- Utility bills and statements issued within six months of the date of the election.
- Personalized attestation of residence, letter of stay or admission form issued by a seniors or student residence, long term care or shelter facility.
